

MVA Consultancy Dublin

MVA Consultancy's Dublin location is easily accessible by public transport:

From the Airport The 747 Express Bus Route operates between Dublin Airport and Busáras (Central Bus Station). Buses depart frequently throughout the day at 10 to 15 minute intervals (generally half hourly outside business hours). Our location is a short walk from the last stop at Busáras (see map).

By Rail and Dart The location is a short distance from Connolly station. There are frequent suburban rail services on the Dart and Dublin Commuter lines. The Belfast Enterprise operates to Connolly Station.

By Tram The Luas Red Line runs to Connolly. Alight at George's Dock and the office is a short walk away (see map). The Red Line serves Heuston Station which links to the national rail network.

By Bus Bus Éireann's main bus station is a short walk away at Busáras providing access to national and regional bus services. Dublin Bus operates an extensive service within the city centre and most city routes are within walking distance of the office. Further route and timetable information is available at www.dublinbus.ie
